

BEHAVIORAL CONDUCT CONSENT FORM

New York Institute of Technology (NYIT) expects that students will act in a sensitive and considerate manner at all times and respect the rights of others. While every subtlety of proper behavior cannot be detailed, the following rules are to be adhered to strictly. Failure to abide by them is dealt with immediately and leads to expulsion from the program. No portion of fees or tuition will be refunded in connection with an expulsion. Expelled students do not receive evaluation letters or Statement of Attendance. Students expelled from the program will be expected to make arrangements for an immediate departure at their own cost. These rules apply to all students in the program.

Behavioral Standards

1. The possession and/or use of drugs and/or alcohol, on campus or off, is forbidden. Possession of weapons or incendiary devices of any kind is prohibited. Contraband is confiscated upon discovery; expulsion follows immediately.
2. Smoking is prohibited on the campuses of NYIT.
3. NYIT deems unacceptable any verbal or physical conduct that demeans others because of their race, gender, ethnic background, religion, or sexual orientation.
4. Students must attend class unless they are ill. Parents/guardians of students in the program will be notified of absences.
5. Plagiarism is not tolerated. Plagiarism includes, but not limited to, submitting work done by another person or submitted by another source; failing to document ideas found in sources, whether print or electronic, with appropriate notes and bibliographic references; failing to enclose borrowed phrases or sentences within quotation marks; and turning in an assignment for two courses without advance permission from both instructors.
6. Students must abide by the rules and regulations of the organizations, institutes, museums, and other places that students may visit under the program.
